

Revd. Samuel Mall
BA (History, Political Science), BD, MTh,
DTh (Pursuing)
Assistant Professor of Christian Theology

Research Interests Include: Christology, Dalit Theology, Religious Pluralism, Religious Nationalism and Contextual Theologies in India

He was ordained as a Presbyterian in the Diocese of Chandigarh, CNI in 2008. He continued serving in the diocese as a full-time minister till he joined his MTh in 2010. In his MTh work, he focused on constructing Dalit Christology in conversation with Historical Jesus Studies. After the completion of his MTh, he joined the CNI Synod Programme Office in Nagpur as the Programme Coordinator for Training Development and Empowerment. This work gave him an opportunity to connect his academic training with challenges of practical pastoral ministry in CNI. He worked with all dioceses of CNI and focused on planning programmes on the training of the Clergy and Laity at the Synod and Diocesan Level. He has also represented CNI in the Executive Committee of CISRS (Christian Institute for the Study of Religion and Society), Bangalore. Samuel teaches courses in Christian theology to BD and BCS students of the college.

Publications:

Books

Samuel Mall and Joshua Samuel: Church and Religious Diversity, (Council for World Mission and ISPCK: 2020)

Articles in Journals and Magazines

1. "Dialogue as Mission in Contemporary Pastoral Ministry" - in 'Aikyatha', A Publication of Student Christian Movement of India, March 2007.
2. "Resurrection: A Happening in The Past or an Action in the Present?"- In 'CSI Life', A Publication of Church of South India, April 2009.
3. "No-People in Jesus' Birth" in National Council of Churches Review (NCCR), Vol. CXXI, No. 10, November 2011.
4. "Towards Just and Inclusive Communities: Dalit Perspective" in National Council of Churches Review (NCCR), Vol. CXXXVI, No. 3, April 2016.